Any documents may be submitted you deem required for your proposal. Additional documents are optional.

Topics

- 10. Is it possible to submit a proposal outside of the suggested topics?
The proposals should address one of the topics listed in the Call document.
- 11. Are there any thematic areas that are excluded from the M20 program?
Due to the terms and conditions of the donation for the M20 program, proposals that focus on the study of religion are excluded. The exclusion only relates to the contents of the proposal, it does not mean that supervisors/candidates from the Faculty of Religion, Culture and Society are excluded.

12. If my work is linked to one of the Schools, can I only submit a proposal for a topic for that specific School?

No, the condition is that your proposal is linked to a topic of any of the four Schools.

Applying as a ReMa student

13. What are the requirements for proposals that include a ReMa student as a co-applicant?

The M20 program is open to proposals that include a ReMa student as a co-applicant. This is only possible for ReMa students from the University of Groningen, including ReMa students who are still in the process of obtaining their degree. In this situation, the ReMa student needs to find suitable supervisors before submitting their application with the same general rules: at least one of the supervisors needs to possess ius promovendus

14. Who should submit a proposal that includes a ReMa student?

If the proposal includes a ReMA student, the supervisors may submit the application, mentioning the information of the ReMa student. The ReMa student may also be included as a co-applicant with the supervisors. ReMa students cannot submit a proposal without supervisors.

15. Can I submit a proposal with a regular MA degree?

The M20 program is only open to Research MA students. Students from regular MA programs or ReMa students from other universities are not eligible.

Rules & Regulations

16. Is it mandatory that one of the supervisors must possess ius promovendus?

Each proposal must include at least one supervisor who has ius promovendus. Applications submitted without a supervisor who has ius promovendus status will not be reviewed.

17. The research should be interdisciplinary, how many faculties should be involved?

Each proposal should include supervisors from at least two different faculties. It is possible to include more faculties for your proposal.

18. Is there a maximum number of supervisors per proposal?

There is no maximum. However, if a proposal is submitted by more than three supervisors, the Dean of the faculty where the PhD student will be enrolled needs to give permission for more supervisors.

19. Can I submit more than one proposal within the call for proposals?

One supervisor may be involved with more than one proposal, but we advise to avoid this.

20. Should the applicants be members of the relevant Schools?

The applicants do not need to be currently linked to the Schools.

21. Is it possible to submit an application if I am not employed at the University of Groningen?

All applicants must be members of staff or (former) Research MA students at the University of Groningen.

22. When submitting our proposal do we need to have a PHD candidate appointed?

It is not required to have a PHD candidate appointed before the grant is awarded.

23. When does the PhD candidate have to start the project?

Preferably, the PhD candidate should start in 2024.
